The Honorable J. Strom Thurmond
Governor of South Carolina

We are transmitting to you herewith the third printing of Pamphlet No. 8, prepared by the South Carolina State Planning Board, revised and brought up to date by the Research, Planning and Development Board.

This printing has been made necessary by the heavy demand for copies of this publication. Requests are continually being received from individuals, organizations, clubs, schools and libraries interested in the economic development of South Carolina.

Sincerely,
R. M. COOPER,
Director.

GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGED

The Research, Planning and Development Board wishes to extend its grateful acknowledgment for aid in the preparation of this pamphlet.

SECTION 1.

POST OFFICES, EXPRESS OFFICES, HIGHWAY FACILITIES, MOTOR LINES, RAIL SERVICE, POWER AND TELEPHONE UTILITIES

Section I is divided into Tables A and B.

Post Offices are designated in Table A by the symbol "*".

Express Offices are designated in Table A by the letter "x".

U. S. and State Highways are tabulated in separate columns of Table A, while feeder county roads have been omitted. All highways do not pass directly through some of the population centers as listed, but do constitute the highway facilities within a mile radius.

Passenger and freight motor lines as well as the rail services have been listed in separate columns in Table A.

Privately and publicly owned power generating companies and distribution systems are also included in Table A. Service is either already rendered or available as indicated.

The Telephone Exchanges in South Carolina are listed by towns in Table B.

SECTION II.

CITY AND TOWN INCORPORATION DATA

The incorporation history of 364 urban centers is summarized in this section. Before 1896 cities and towns were chartered by an Act of the Legislature. During 1896 laws were enacted giving the Secretary of State authority to issue charters incorporating municipalities.
